A Retrospective of Paintings

President Lynne Coy-Ogan was pleased to curate a body of landscape and still life paintings done by her mother over the span of 55 years. These paintings come from the collections of several family members and friends and represent personal stories, family adventures and memories on Sebec Lake in Maine.

"Pieces of Maine"

ARTIST RECEPTION Oct 16 from 2-4:30 pm
ARTIST TALK 4 pm

Featured are landscape paintings by local artist Martin "Marty" Gallant. Gallant works in the style of photorealism to represent the Maine Landscape.

From the Artist: Maine offers a wide range of inspiring landscapes from the rocky coast to the potato fields of Aroostook County. The land reflects the character of many Mainers. The Maine Landscape is rugged, worn, and often awe inspiring. This land reflects the character of many "Mainers"; who can be independent, stoic, proud, individualistic, and "real".
